

This past 18th May, Medshare International Humanitarian AID Organization payed tribute to Isabel Valdez de Escala, International Relations Manager for Junta de Beneficencia de Guayaquil, by awarding her with the “Humanitarian International Prize in 2017” at the AT&T Park in San Francisco, U.S.A.

This recognition, which took place at the third annual meeting to collect Funds “Talk & Taste” Organized by Medshare, recognized the work displayed by Isabel Valdez regarding reception, distribution and reports of all donations sent this Organization to Ecuador through La Junta de Beneficencia de Guayaquil given the earthquake which shook the country this past April 16th of 2016.

This event was the setting to reveal before International AID Organizations the magnitude of the social work performed by la Junta de Beneficencia de Guayaquil in the areas of Health and Education and how the Centenary Guayaquil Organization has saved and changed thousands of lives.

La Junta de Beneficencia de Guayaquil is pleased at such well deserved recognition and congratulates its International Relations Manager Isabel Valdez for representing our corporate values of solidarity and leadership through the work performed.

REGARDING MEDSHARE

Medshare is a Humanitarian AID Organization 501c (3) dedicated to improving people's quality of life, communities and the planet by providing and delivering medical supplies and equipment directly to communities in need around the world.