

As recognition of the support given to the Guayaquil society and the country, the Movistar Telephone Company delivered the “Maglia Rosa” T-shirt which identified Richard Carapaz as leader of the “Giro de Italia” bicycle race in 2019 to La Junta de Beneficencia de Guayaquil.

For the Coastal Regional Manager of the Movistar Telephone Company Eng. Ricardo Intriago the success of the Carchi cyclist was a matter of pride for Ecuador. “It is an icon of an Ecuadorian sporting success and for this reason we deliver this T-shirt autographed by Richards to la Junta”, he said.

The Movistar cyclist made history in the rose race on becoming the first Ecuadorian to garner this prestigious achievement which places him among the greatest cyclist in the world.
